

Selig Group Appoints its Next President

Naperville, IL - May 12 – Global packaging solutions provider, Selig Group is pleased to announce that Adam Sheridan will assume the role of President of Selig Group effective June 1st. Selig Group’s President and CEO Steve Cassidy will step away from day-to-day activities as company President, while retaining the role of CEO.

Mr. Sheridan’s appointment is part of a managed executive transition coordinated by Steve Cassidy and Bill Crown, Selig’s Chairman of the Board, over the past few years. Mr. Cassidy, having served as President and CEO for the past 19 years, will continue to support the company’s growth and key strategic projects, and remain an active member of the Board of Directors.

Mr. Sheridan joined Selig in 2015 as an advisor to the Board and has held the roles of Selig’s Vice President of Corporate Development and Strategy and Executive Vice President / General Manager, North America. Prior to Selig, Adam was a senior member of CC Industries’ Corporate Development team for over ten years. Adam is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin and the University of Chicago School of Business.

“I am thrilled to lead the Selig team and serve Selig’s customers”, said Mr. Sheridan. “Investing in the team, with safety as a top priority, and a commitment to world class service, quality, and product innovation will remain Selig’s focus. Through strategic sourcing, manufacturing excellence and market knowledge, we will continue to provide the lowest total cost of ownership to our customers. I look forward to spending more time with employees, customers, suppliers, and strategic relationships to enhance Selig’s unique portfolio of technologies and products that serve our customer's needs across all markets.”
